The question is, what are the rates of travelling allowance admissible to the Curator of the Government Central Book Depot, Bangalore.

By an order issued by the late Education Secretary, No.105-6 dated 29th September 1890, it was ruled that the Curator of the Central Book Depot " will be allowed the batta and other travelling allowances to which a Deputy Inspector of Schools is entitled". At that time the Curator was the late Mr.Nadamuni Naidu who had previously been a Deputy Inspector of Schools.

The rates of travelling allowance formerly drawn by Deputy Inspectors of Schools was Rs.2 daily batta and 4 annas mileage, ~~As~~ the revision made by order No.8369-404 P.&A. 39-93 dated 20th January 1898, these rates were raised to Rs.3 and annas 6 respectively.

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL OF EDUCATION IN MYSORE,

No. 9075 / 417 Encl. Bangalore, 26th March 1900.

From

H. J. BHABHA, Esq.,

Inspector General of Education in Mysore

To

The Secretary to the Government of Mysore
General and Revenue Departments.

Sir,

With reference to the enclosed travelling allowance bill of the Curator Government Central Book Depôt, which has been passed by the Comptroller at the rates formerly allowed to Deputy Inspectors instead of at the revised rates claimed in the bill, I have the honour to inform you that by Government order No. 8369-604 / Pda. 39-93 dated 20th January 1898 revising the scale of travelling allowances to the officers of the Mysore State, new rates of allowances have been fixed for the Deputy Inspectors of Schools. Before the revision was effected the Deputy Inspectors were getting daily allowances and mileage at the rates shown in Appendix no 2 of the Marine Service Regulations. By Government order no 105-6 dated 29th September 1890 the Curator of the Government Central Book Depôt is entitled to get travelling allowances at the same rate as a Deputy Inspector. Although the Curator of the Book Depôt is not been included in the order sanctioning the revised scale of travelling allowances yet he is an officer entitled to get travelling allowances at the same rates as Deputy Inspectors of schools in accordance with the above order. I request therefore that Government may be pleased to sanction to the Curator of the Central Book Depôt Bangalore, travelling allowances at the rates allowed to a Deputy Inspector with retrospective effect from the date of the above order.

I have the honour to be
Sir,
Your most obedient servant
H. J. Stokes
Inspector General.

Dear Mr. Bhabha.

In re the reference pending regarding the rates of travelling allowance admissible to the Curator of the Govt. Book Depôt. Kindly see and return the enclosed papers from which it will be observed that the Curator was given the same rates as Deputy Inspectors of Schools on the ground that he "is of the same grade as Dy. Inspectors". (vide your note of 29th September /90) After the death of the then incumbent who belonged to the Dy. Inspectors' grade and whose pay was Rs 100/- rising to Rs 200/-, the present man was appointed on a much smaller salary viz Rs 80/- rising to 100/-; and I don't think it was intended that he should be "of the same grade as Deputy Inspectors" whose minimum salary is Rs 100/- and maximum ~~salary~~ Rs 300/- That being so, how can it be contended that an increase of rate in the case of the latter means an increase also in that of the former? In no other Department, as far as I am aware, is an official whose pay is Rs 80-100/- given a batta of Rs 3/- and a mileage of 6 annas. I may mention that 3 Rs batta necessarily carries with it Double 1st class Railway fare. May I request you to kindly reconsider the matter and let me ~~know~~ have your opinion as to whether the conditions have not changed since 1890 so as to make the rule then passed now inapplicable. Strictly speaking, where no special rates are sanctioned by Govt., an official is entitled only to a batta of 3/10 the of his pay and to a mileage of 4 annas. This in the Curator's case would give him only one Rupee a day if he draws the maximum pay of Rs 100/- and proportionately less if he draws smaller pay He ought to be satisfied with 2 Rs a day.

With kind regards,

Yours very sincerely

Dear Mr Srinivasaiyar,

It is true the pay of the Curator of the Govt Book Depot was reduced in 1896 ~~to~~ to Rs 80 rising by annual increments of 5 to 100. This was done much against my wishes & proposals, for the post of Curator is a responsible one and in my opinion should be given only to a man of the rank & education of a Deputy Inspector. I agree with you however that as the pay was reduced in 1896, the reason that was given for Order No 105-6 dated 29th September 1890 does not now hold good. At the same time I would invite your attention to the fact that the Curator reached his maximum pay of Rs 100 in 1898, and that is the pay of a Deputy Inspector of Schools — Third grade. Under these circumstances as suggested by you the Curator would be satisfied with Rs 2 batta per day and 4 as mileage
